

All participants in the YOR Health Distributor Opportunity are strictly prohibited, expressly or by implication, directly or indirectly, orally or in writing, from the following:

1. Misrepresenting:
  - a. the potential or likely earnings or income derived from the YOR Distributor Opportunity
  - b. the benefits any person participating in the YOR Distributor Opportunity actually can receive from such activity
  - c. the amount of sales a person actually made or can likely make through the YOR Distributor Opportunity
  - d. the existence of salaried or hourly positions in order to recruit distributors or participants for the YOR Distributor Opportunity
  - e. the sales volume, revenues, debt, investment backing, or other indicia of the financial condition of YOR and its Distributors
2. Making any false or misleading statement or misrepresentation of material fact.
3. Assisting others in the making of any false or misleading representation or omission of material fact.
4. Threatening consumers who complain to government or consumer agencies. Prohibited threats include but are not limited to threatening a consumer with legal action for defamation, libel or slander, and demanding that the consumer withdraw his or her complaint to the agency.
5. Misrepresenting any other fact likely to affect a consumer's decision to purchase any good or service from the Distributors.

YOR Distributors are not allowed to market the YOR Health Distributor Opportunity on their own personal website. Should they create their own website for this purpose, the website must first be submitted to the YOR Corporate office for approval and monitoring.
