

All participants in the YOR Health Independent Representative Opportunity are strictly prohibited, expressly or by implication, directly or indirectly, orally or in writing, from the following:

1. Misrepresenting:
 - a. the potential or likely earnings or income derived from the YOR Independent Representative Opportunity
 - b. the benefits any person participating in the YOR Independent Representative Opportunity actually can receive from such activity
 - c. the amount of sales a person actually made or can likely make through the YOR Independent Representative Opportunity
 - d. the existence of salaried or hourly positions in order to recruit Independent Representatives or participants for the YOR Independent Representative Opportunity
 - e. the sales volume, revenues, debt, investment backing, or other indicia of the financial condition of YOR and its Independent Representatives
2. Making any false or misleading statement or misrepresentation of material fact.
3. Assisting others in the making of any false or misleading representation or omission of material fact.
4. Threatening consumers who complain to government or consumer agencies. Prohibited threats include but are not limited to threatening a consumer with legal action for defamation, libel or slander, and demanding that the consumer withdraw his or her complaint to the agency.
5. Misrepresenting any other fact likely to affect a consumer's decision to purchase any good or service from the Independent Representatives.

YOR Independent Representatives are not allowed to market the YOR Health Independent Representative Opportunity on their own personal website. Should they create their own website for this purpose, the website must first be submitted to the YOR Corporate office for approval and monitoring.
